Tenure: Freehold / Energy Rating: D / Council Tax Band: E

1 Richards Barns is one of four barns which was converted in 2007 to a high specification. The property benefits from a number of attractive features including exposed ceiling beams, stone chimney breast with wood burning stove, double glazed windows together with modern day comforts of LPG heating and en-suite shower facilities. The property enjoys a semi rural location with attractive outlook in the small hamlet of Stockland Bristol. The village itself offers a number of historic buildings including a nineteenth century church, whilst the neighbouring village of Otterhampton and Combwich provide general stores and primary school education. For day to day services, the village of Cannington provides an array of local shops, public houses as well as a post office and popular butchers. A more comprehensive range of facilities can be found in Bridgwater's town centre which is approximately seven miles distant and also includes access to the M5 motorway and railway network.
