GIBBINS RICHARDS
Making home moves happen

A very well extended three bedroomed 1930's semi, located in a popular north Taunton cul-de-sac. The property has been extended to the rear and offers excellent family living space in a popular part of town.

Tenure: Freehold / Energy Rating: C / Council Tax Band: C

14 Bowood Road is a traditional 1930's three bed semi which has been extended to the rear to create a larger kitchen/breakfast room. There is still two reception rooms, sitting room and dining room to the main original house, as well as a downstairs cloakroom and to the first floor, three bedrooms and a family bathroom. The property is brilliantly augmented by a large westerly facing rear garden with good sized studio/summerhouse and additional store shed. There is parking to the front for two cars and the property benefits from gas central heating and double glazing throughout. A brilliant family home in a popular residential road. Viewing is highly recommended.
