Making home moves happen

A very spacious and detached bungalow providing versatile accommodation with the benefit of 'annexe' potential. The accommodation comprises; entrance hall, generous size sitting room, well equipped kitchen/dining room, conservatory with insulated roof, three bedrooms, wet room, separate shower room, utility room, ample off road parking and garage. Heated swimming pool and private rear garden.

Tenure: Freehold / Energy Rating: B / Council Tax Band: D

This detached bungalow was believed to be built around twenty five years ago, as an individual build, which has since been extended to provide an additional shower room and bedroom. The property benefits from a most useful heated swimming pool with pump as well as ample off road parking and garage. This spacious detached bungalow is located towards the end of a cul-de-sac in this popular village which is approximately four miles west of Bridgwater's town centre. Within the village are a number of day to day amenities to include popular primary school, village stores, popular pubs, medical centre as well as Cannington and Brymore Agricultural College.
